

Jesus Christ and Peace in Your Heart

Okay, why is this Tip on the DisasterGuy website? During a major emergency or disaster, you need spiritual preparedness, too! A World War II veteran told me that in war, there were no atheists in the foxholes. Get your spiritual preparations as ready as your physical preparations!

The Disaster Guy is a Mormon. Specifically, I am a member of "The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints." See the "Jesus Christ" in the name? I am a Christian. I believe in God, the Eternal Father, in His Son, Jesus Christ, and in the Holy Ghost. I personally accept Jesus Christ as my Savior.

You can make all the physical preparation you want, yet one day you may wake up asking yourself questions. What is this all about? Who am I? Why am I here? If my physical preparations aren't enough, where am I going after this life? I know Mormons have answers to these questions, because I know what the answers are. Check out <www.mormons.org> or <www.lds.org> if you'd like to learn more about what Mormons believe.

I mention Mormons first because I am one - but there are many other churches and many other religions. I have friends who are Baptists, Lutherans, and Methodists. Some friends are Assembly of God, Catholic, Jewish, Non-Denominational, Pentecostal, or Presbyterian. Each of my church-going friends seems as happy and comfortable with his church as I am with mine. If you're interested in the Mormons, ask a Mormon. If you're interested in the Baptists, ask a Baptist. Etc., etc.!

Before any disaster or emergency happens, seriously consider your relationship with Jesus Christ! Take the time to make spiritual preparations to grow the spiritual strength you'll need in the toughest of times. Read the scriptures. Learn to pray sincerely. Find a church. Join a church. Become an active, committed church member.

If and when the big disaster hits - and I hope it doesn't! - no matter what happens, your personal faith in Jesus Christ can give you peace in your heart. You see, it doesn't matter what happens. What matters is your attitude toward it! If you have faith in Jesus Christ, you can have a peaceful heart while chaos throngs around you.
